MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

The year 2022 marks the 30th anniversary of Balasore Social Service Society (BSSS). Back in 1992, we were established with a mission to promote, facilitate and enable sustainable human development of all, especially the poor and the marginalized by fighting poverty, malnutrition and diseases, enhancing quality education, ensuring livelihood, and food security and addressing emergencies. True to its mission BSSS has always set sustainability at the heart of its intervention approach. Effectively carrying out this mandate and bringing smiles to the thousands of poor people of 4 districts of Odisha specially Balasore, Bhadrak, Keonjhar and Mayurbhanj speak of our commitment. Over the past 30 years, BSSS has reached out to the people with improved agricultural practices, resilience models, integrated farming, sustainable livelihood options, quality education facilities, skill development, healthcare support, and empowering the vulnerable to stand for their rights, especially women and children. The relentless commitment and dedication of every member of the BSSS family helped to overcome many challenges in the past years.

The emergencies like COVID second wave, the cyclone Yaas and the growing economic crisis had a great impact on the people. BSSS was there collaborating with the government authorities and like-minded NGOs to ease the pain of the people. BSSS provided food, skill development training, and monetary help to adversely affected people. The people in the villages were encouraged to take up agriculture and other income-generating activities as an option for sustainable livelihood. The women and the children were educated to assert their rights at all levels and special emphasis was given to children and their right to quality education and dignity of life. BSSS believed that knowledge is power hence the people were made aware of their rights and obligations for development. The community-based organizations like Self Help Groups, Farmers' Club and Farmers' Federation were capacitated to be part of the decision-making and take up the program forward.

It is pertinent to mention here that without the support of the Governing Body members, our funding agencies, government officials, BSSS staff, all the collaborators and the well-wishers it would not have been possible to accomplish much. BSSS family is indebted to all of you dear partners.

Fr. Lijo George
Director

MESSAGE FROM THE ASSISTANT DIRECTOR

Balasore Social Service Society serves humanity and provides sustainable solutions for our communities on livelihood, education and community development. Human dignity is the centre of all activities of BSSS. I am happy to be part of this journey and render my service to the people of 4 districts of Balasore, Bhadrak, Keonjhar and Mayurbhanj of Odisha.

I am indeed glad to express my sentiments and admiration for this family where everyone is united for the development of the people. The activities in the interior villages of the 4 districts were possible because of the cooperation of the people and their leaders. Various CBOs extended their support and became part of the program.

BSSS has brought smiles to many families by ensuring food security, providing quality education, breaking down the division of gender, caste, religion and status and ensuring sustainable livelihood. The programs introduced and carried out were in collaboration with the line department, other NGOs and the CBOs of the place.

A word of appreciation to the BSSS staff and all the animators who tirelessly plan, execute and monitor the programs. I acknowledge the support of the managing committee and their guidance in all the undertakings of the BSSS. I admit that the work done was not possible without the help of the donor agencies who supported all of our programs.

I wish all the best to the BSSS family for the days ahead that they will truly be the agents of change and brighten the lives of people.

The targets of these programs and activities are mainly women, youth, children, marginalized farmers, Tribals and Scheduled Castes. Some of the major programs that were carried out in the year 2021-2022 are Sustainable transformation of Tribals through Empowerment, Education and Economic Reforms, (STEER), Social Welfare through Agriculture and Allied Development (SWAAD), Sustainable and Participatory Rural Empowerment through Agri - based livelihood Development (SPREAD), Mainstreaming the low performing Tribal Students through Bridge up Center (BuC), Surakya: A joint venture to safeguard the Right and dignity of the children of Mayurbhanj, COVID 19 Emergency Relief Support, and Poverty Reduction and Food Security, Promoting Social Inclusion of Particularly Marginalized Groups, and Increasing Resilience to Disasters in High-Risk Areas.

BSSS MAKING THE WOMAN THE CENTRE OF ECONOMIC, POLITICAL AND SOCIAL CHANGE

BSSS strongly believes that woman is like the leaven who can permeate the entire society. Emancipation of women from the clutches of poverty and ignorance would result in the development of the family and society. Several activities and programs were conducted at different places and times to ensure that the women are enlightened and that change has been initiated.

WOMEN SELF-HELP GROUP

BSSS plays an important catalyst role across 4 districts of Balasore, Bhadrak, Keonjhar and Mayurbhanj to unite women in the villages to make them a mighty force to withstand all the hurdles and guide them towards their sustainability. Every village covered under various programs of BSSS has an SHG and most of them are vibrant. Some of the women from the SHGs participate in decision-making at the village level, manage the financial affairs at the household level and are confident that they can change things for the better. BSSS is working with and monitoring 284 SHGs this year.

WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP

BSSS promotes women’s leadership as they are multi-tasking, creative, responsible and loyal to the objectives. In the BSSS project area, women led the Women Self Help Groups and the Farmers’ Clubs, which were found to be progressing. There are few FCs, where women are at the helm and in their leadership, roles are found to be more effective, democratic, communicative and courageous to face any hurdles that may come.

WOMEN PRINCIPAL AGENTS OF DEVELOPMENT

BSSS observed that women combat social crises in an effective way and made them their partners in bringing about desired change. Women are the backbone of all the programs and interventions of BSSS. Most of the CBOs like CCPC, GPCPC, Education Committees, BuC teachers, SHGs, FCs, and FFs have them as members and it is the women who are monitoring the safe migration in their villages. Women Anganwadi and Asha workers play a significant role in the success stories of intervention.

BSSS AN AGENT OF SUSTAINABLE LIVELIHOOD PROVIDER

BSSS mostly caters to the needs of the poor, agricultural peasants of 4 districts of Odisha. The farmers depended on the rain and usually cultivated only one crop and left the land unused. BSSS organised them and introduced sustainable agriculture and allied livelihood options. The promotion of organic and climate-smart cultivation and the introduction of the Integrated Farming System for increasing the number of livelihood options have not only ensured the economic stability of a huge number of farmers but it has reduced malnutrition, migration, unemployment and financial crisis among the people.

BLEND OF SCIENTIFIC AND TRADITIONAL METHODS OF AGRICULTURE

INTEGRATED FARMING SYSTEM (IFS)

BSSS promoted IFS a system of farming that integrates various agricultural enterprises viz., cropping, animal husbandry, fishery, forestry etc. which have great potential in the agricultural economy. These enterprises not only supplement the income of the farmers but also help in increasing family labour employment. Training and input support have been given to the farmers and IFS models are created. Most households have a combination of 4 or more components.

FROM SEASONAL FARMING TO ALL-SEASON FARMING!

Anipa Soren from the village of Astabeda, in the Mayurbhanj district, gained skills and knowledge about farming techniques and decided to adopt the IFS model. He constructed the pond for fish and also installed a vermicompost pit, azolla, and nadev to use as fertilizers for the crops. He cultivated vegetables like brinjal, garlic, chillies, cauliflower, tomato, cabbage, ginger, turmeric, onion, etc. which were sold in the market and also consumed. From which he had a profit of more than Rs. 10,000, in a month. With better financial conditions Anipa purchased a power tiller machine and now he has employment round the year and fresh vegetables for consumption.

His IFS model is visited by nearby farmers and NGOs for gaining knowledge and experience. He is grateful to BSSS and SPREAD project for the new life he and his family has received. He always acclaims “it is a gift from Manos Unidas and I am indebted”.

KHARIF AND RABI CROPS TO ENSURE FOOD SECURITY

BSSS encouraged farmers to cultivate both Kharif and Rabi crops. Most of the farmers generally cultivated Kharif and left the land unused. With the intervention of BSSS, which provided them with training and seed support most of the farmers cultivated not only paddy but also other cereals, pulses, cash crops and vegetables which increased their production and provided them with food security and financial stability.

KHARIF AND RABI PADDY CULTIVATION

BSSS to ensure the adoption of stress-tolerant quality paddy seeds by the farmers and to adopt a package of improved cropping practices supported the farmers with Kharif and Rabi paddy seed support. This increased their production by 65 % and income by 45% which increased their confidence in Agriculture.

CEREALS, PULSES AND CASH CROPS

BSSS introduced cereals pulses and cash crops in all its areas of intervention. There is a remarkable change in some operational areas of BSSS, where the land that remained barren years altogether was brought under cultivation with available water. Pulses like Black gram, Green gram, Bengal gram, and oil seeds - Mustard, Groundnut, Sunflower and Wheat were cultivated in many areas which reduced food scarcity and increased income. The farmers were trained and seed support was provided. Today most of the land is occupied and cereals, pulses and cash crops are grown which need less water. This has seen an increase of 40% in the production of Cereals, Pulses and Cash crops.

BREAKING THE DARKNESS OF BLIND BELIEF

58 Households of Baghuashol village were resettled around the uplands of Deuli Dam after being evacuated by the Deuli Irrigation Project. They have lost their homestead land under the catchment area. Their newly settled land was suitable for cash crop (Turmeric and Arum) cultivation. But they were not aware of it. Further, they had the belief that only Brahmins can cultivate such crops and if they go for such crops it will bring them bad omens. BSSS was in a process of introducing cash crop cultivation in shady and unused lands of the project area. It sensitized the WSHG members about the benefit of cash crop (ginger) cultivation and educated and informed the reason for blind belief. Finally, they agreed and took it as a challenge against traditional beliefs. SHG members cultivated 25 kgs of ginger and produced 75 kg of ginger. This has motivated them to cultivate ginger and other crops and overcome their superstitious beliefs. Sunita Mahakud of Srabani SHG says “We have broken the traditional belief on ginger cultivation and it makes us free.

INTRODUCTION OF ORGANIC VEGETABLE GARDEN

BSSS encouraged the farmers to cultivate vegetables in their backyards to have a nutritious diet and to earn some income. The community was given training and required seed support. Almost 54% of the increase in the production of vegetables like bitter gourd, brinjal, cauliflower, cabbage, chilli, okra, cucumber, cowpea, pumpkin, greens, ridge gourd, potato, tomato and provided the households vegetables for their consumption and an increase of 35% of income.

SEED VILLAGE

BSSS made the farmers producers of the seeds they require for the cultivation of paddy and other crops. The seed village is a patch of land where the paddy is cultivated and harvested considering the process of quality seed production.

BSSS promotes the welfare of women and the less privileged in society. Training centres in 7 different places are established to cater to the needs of the women. A computer course is being organised at the centre itself to impart basic computer knowledge to the poor youth of Balasore. The BuC teachers and other animators who aspired for skill in computer or tailoring were also given a special opportunity to join the training.
